

Biography

The Mills Family has been in full-time ministry, traveling across this nation for the past 25 years. Prior to that, Mike and his wife, Jimille, traveled with his uncle, the well-known singer/song-writer, Quinton Mills, for nearly 12 years. They are Native American Indians from the Haliwa-Saponi Indian Tribe and reside in Hollister, NC.

Mike is an Ordained Bishop in the Church of God (Cleveland, TN.) and serves on the State Council for Eastern N.C. (which is the governing board of over 250 churches). He is a seasoned and effective minister of the gospel, regardless of denominational boundaries. Many Pastors across the country has shared the comment that "Mike brings the spark that is needed for revival, yet he delivers a solid message that stays with the church long after the revival is over". Mike's testimony of God healing him from Crohn's Disease has been a powerful witness to those in need of a physical touch. Recently Mike won the Church of God Adult Talent State Competition (Eastern North Carolina) and then went on to compete and win the Church of God International Adult Competition held in Gatlinburg TN in the Drums/Percussions category.

The Mills Family

Jimille has a voice and delivery that will amaze you and bless you at the same time. Along with her passion for singing, she is an anointed minister. She holds credentials in the Church of God organization and serves on the State Women's Ministries Board and The Music Committee for Eastern N.C. Jimille has become a powerful speaker, speaking at many ladies' conferences and seminars. She is also a highly sought after praise and worship leader. On special events, she also provides an ALL FEMALE praise team with live musicians.

Brooke, now 25 years old, has been singing with her parents since she was two. God has truly gifted this young lady with an amazing voice. Her vocal talents have been highlighted in her winning the Church of God Teen Talent State Competition (Eastern North Carolina) for 2 years in a row. As a crowning achievement, Brooke won the Church of God Teen Talent International Competition in August of 2008. She attended Lee University majoring in Youth Ministry and Music. Brooke now lives near Miami FL and works there at mega church in ministry with her husband, Ray Simpson. Although she is unable to travel full-time with The Mills Family, she is still sharing the gospel through song as an outreach of our ministry.

Mikey and Leah, now 17 years old, usually travels with their Mom and Dad completing this Family Ministry by singing, spoken word or mime/drama especially for the youth. When they were much younger they recorded a kid's, CD entitled Young Believers that included sound tracks to encourage other children to sing as well. It's easy to see, this ministry team offers something for everyone.

Through the years of ministry, The Mills Family considers one of their high points to have been invited to sing at the Church of God International General Assembly in San Antonio, TX. (This service was also aired on Daystar Christian Television Network.) They have also appeared with noted guest such as, Tommy Tenney (Author of "The God Chasers"), Dr. Mike Murdock (Song Writer and Author), Karen Wheaten (Christian Recording Artist), Jason Crabb (Christian Recording Artist) Nicole Mullen (Christian Recording Artist), Babbie Mason (Christian Recording Artist), Rod Parsley and Jentezen Franklin (Pastor of Free Chapel).

Having effectively ministered in churches, auditoriums, festivals, colleges, etc., be assured this ministry team will bless you. This is a great opportunity to invite your friends and family who enjoy anointed and spirited singing that is uplifting and life changing. Plan now to attend one of their meetings, invite a guest and expect to be blessed by this ministry team!
